Mediterraneo focaccia at La Fabbrica Italiana

La Fabbrica Italiana is the UAE's very first focacceria. And you know what that means – all the delicious Italian breads. And the menu at the home-grown, family-run restaurant features just three main items: artisan focaccia, burrata, and tiramisu. La Fabbrica Italiana uses a 72-hour fermentation process that leaves the Italian bread airy and light. There are more than 15 focaccia variations to choose from including Italian favourites like Barese and Ligurian focaccia, plus a za'atar manakish-style focaccia that pays homage to Dubai and the local flavours. But there's also a range of focaccia sandwiches, and our pick of the brunch is the Mediterraneo, packed full of fresh, creamy buffalo mozzarella, juicy ripe tomatoes, fragrant basil and lashings of indulgent olive oil.
